New Euphoria Tile Collection from Craven Dunnill

A Modern Fusion of Terracotta and Cement

The new Euphoria porcelain floor tile collection from Craven Dunnill's Renaissance Collection is a modern take on the original, and once again fashionable, terracotta tile. Euphoria combines the industrial vibe of scratched, aged cement, complete with efflorescence or salt deposits, blended with the irregular finish of old terracotta tiles.

The effect is both intriguing and appealing, accentuated by the on-trend, large format 750mm x 750mm size.

The colour palette features five natural clay tones in a glazed, matt finish: Cotton, Earth, Lava, Sand and Shell. Euphoria retails for around £45.25m².
