

PRESS RELEASE

Bridgnorth tiling company floors the opposition and wins top national award

Craven Dunnill, the Bridgnorth tile company took the top prize of Floor Tile of the Year, at the tiling industry's prestigious, national awards held at the Hilton Metropole in Birmingham, Saturday 2nd April.

Steve Whitehurst, Sales and Marketing Director received the award at The Tile Association Awards (TTA) 2011, which now takes pride of place at Craven Dunnill's Stourbridge Road showroom, as does its winning design, which is called Natural Stone by Marazzi.

Voted the hottest look in floor tiles, Natural Stone is a porcelain wall and floor tile, which won praise for its superior design qualities and versatile appeal. The Natural Stone range is displayed in both kitchen and bathroom settings at Craven Dunnill's showroom, which is now open seven days a week.

Sister company and manufacturer, Craven Dunnill Jackfield, is likewise celebrating picking up a TTA award for its hand-made, specialist, heritage floor tiles, which it produced for the major restoration project of Cathedral Church of St. Mary's in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, completed last year.
